

XXXIV International Congress of Genealogical and Heraldic Sciences, Madrid, 21-24 April 2020

Early Career Sponsorship: Application Form

This application form and supporting documents must be addressed to the President (president@aih-1949.com) no later than 15 September 2020 (new date!).

Personal information:

SURNAME:

Name:

Personal address:

Postal code:

Location:

Country:

Telephone number:

Email:.....@.....

Academic / professional details:

Last completed degree (please specify the year):

Current studies/professional occupation:

University/Institution (if applicable):

Title of work, essay or projected research currently pursued (on heraldry or closely related to heraldry):

Research supervisor (if applicable):

Title of the projected communication at the colloquium:

Presentation format:  Presentation with PowerPoint

Chosen language:  French  English  German

Funding sought for (tick one or more boxes):

Registration fee

Accommodation

Travel:

The sum allocated by the AIH constitutes a maximum, should the actual costs be less, the AIH will undertake to defray only the amounts actually incurred. The remittance of the bursary will be conditional upon the submission of documentation of the incurred costs (hotel bills, train or plane tickets,...).

Required documentation:

- A summary of your presentation (200 to 300 words).

- A presentation of your current heraldic work (the summary you submitted at the time of your academic registration, or the one you submitted to your research supervisor, for example).

- A letter of recommendation from your research supervisor.

- A letter of approximately 150 words explaining the reasons why you seek this bursary.